Circuit Court

Judge Frank Christian opened and adjourned session of the court here Friday for the trial principally of those charged with violation of the prohibition law. The prosecution was aided by Mr. Thos. Whitehead of the Prohibition department. Mr. Clement appeared for the accused and the only cases tried resulted in a verdict for the defendents in each case. Two of the accused entered pleas of guilty and were fined $50 each. There was a large attendance and much interest was manifested in the cases. Judge Christian presides with dignity and precision and decides promptly and soundly all questions of law and evidence.

Alexander S. Wingfield

This much esteemed gentleman passed to his reward early this morning. He had been in feeble health for some time, but it may be said of him that he died with his boots on, for yesterday he carried the mail on his route as usual. He was a popular carrier and a faithful public servant; he will be missed by the patrons of his route, who have greeted him for years in this service. The deceased was in the 67th year of his age, a devout member of Herman Methodist church and his amiable disposition made him many friends. He is survived by five children, three of whom reside in this county. His funeral and burial will be held at his late home near Vera Thursday afternoon.

Liberty Baptist Church

There will be no preaching services here Sunday morning or night. Our people will worship at the Presbyterian church at both services. The pastor, Rev. H. Parlett East, will preach at the Farmville Baptist church.

$1.50 per year is less than 3¢ per week. Not too much for the County paper.

Ex Governor M. R. Patterson will lecture at Liberty church this evening for the prohibition cause.

The New Comers will hold their annual picnic in the grove near the home of Mr E. L. Upton either on Saturday, July 3 or Monday, July 5. The date will be announced later.

Mr. E. B. Martin had the misfortune to have his barn and contents burned Sunday evening. His damage will probably reach $500. No insurance. It is said he went in the barn where there was stored gas and explosion occurred.

Age of Achievement.

Surely then there is a place for the middle aged, even for the older worker. If most of the eminent men in the world had actually died at forty, leaving out only a few soldiers and a few lyric poets like Keats and Shelley, or even if they had died at fifty or sixty, the world would be a sorry, barbaric place, indeed. For it is hardly necessary to say that no end of actual compilations have been made of the age of achievement, and they always hit an average of fifty. This is true in both peace and war. Dr. W. A. N. Doriand some years ago studied the careers of 400 of the world's most eminent men in every line and found that the average at which mental activity began was twenty-four, and that the masterpieces of work, whether books, battles, poems, inventions, discoveries or business ventures, came at the average of fifty, ranging for various groups from forty-one to fifty-eight.—Albert W. Atwood in Saturday Evening Post.

The Doctor-Bird.

One of the humming birds of Jamaica has long been called "doctor-bird," but, curiously, it is not the same bird which used to be called so in that island. Gorse, whose "Birds of Jamaica" is a standard and delightful work on the natural history of the island as he observed it half a century ago, says it was the small mango hummer, now known as "plantain guide," because of its preference for the banana blossom. He says the name was given by the people because of the belief that it ministers to its comrades when they are ill or injured, but another writer gives what is probably the correct version when he says that it got its name through having a much more sober plumage than others of the same family. At the present day, however, the name is applied almost entirely to the beautiful long-tailed variety, and hardly ever to its duller brother.

We decline to get excited about the price-reduction wave until it gets as far as Appomattox county.

The government at Washington still lives, and at the rate at which it is costing the people it is the superlative example of the high cost of living.

The warm damp weather is very productive of flies and measures should be taken to prevent, as far as possible, their propagation. Clean up your back premises and thoroughly lime same; also manure dumps should be well limed. The filthy condition of some back premises which have come under our observation is enough to produce an epidemic of fever. Common decency should be a sufficient incentive to impel one to keep their premises in a sanitary condition.

COMMISSIONER'S SALE

Of Two Farms in Appomattox County and a Lot in the Village of Appomattox

As Commissioner of the Circuit Court of Appomattox county, Va., in the chancery suit of Mary A. Robertson et als vs Nina Elliott Robertson et als and in pursuance of a decree of sale entered in the said cause at the June term, 1920, I will on offer for sale at public auction on the respective premises in the order here mentioned, two valuable farms on Falling River in Appomattox county, Va., about five miles south from Spout Spring, a station on the Norfolk & Western railroad, belonging to the estate of the late DR. D. MOTT ROBERTSON.

Tuesday, the 29th Day of June, 1920, beginning at 11 o'clock a. m.

(1) THE GOODE OR SWEENEY PLACE, containing 153.3 acres, upon which there are a three-room log residence, a small stable, two tobacco barns and a two room tenant house.

(2) THE CHEATHAM PLACE, containing 155 acres and upon which there are a four-room frame dwelling, stable for four horses and other necessary outbuildings, two tobacco barns and a four-room tenant house.

These are exceptionally fine grain and tobacco farms and are in a high state of cultivation. Each of them has a fair proportion of bottom land, and the highland is of an unusually good quality.

At 4 P. M. on the Same Day

I will offer for sale on the premises in the village of Appomattox a desirable residence lot containing 1.45 acres, situated on the Evergreen-Lynchburg road, a short distance from the center of the village, adjoining the properties of L. Roy Smith, Cleveland Fore and the Methodist parsonage. There is upon this lot a large stable building.

POSSESSION—Seeding possession of the two farms will be delivered this fall and complete possession on or before December 31st of the present year. Possession of the lot can be had as soon as the sale is confirmed by the court.

TERMS—One-fourth cash and as to the balance of the purchase money upon a credit of one, two and three years, the purchasers to execute their obligations for the deferred payments of the purchase money, bearing interest from the day of sale, which interest shall be payable semi-annually; the title to the property to be retained until the entire purchase money is paid.

HENRY M. SACKETT, Commissioner

Bond executed by Henry M. Sackett, Commissioner, as required by decree of sale in Mary A. Robertson et als vs Nina Elliott Robertson et als.

CALLED HER FAMILY TO HER BEDSIDE

Six Years Ago, Thinking She Might Die, Says Texas Lady, But Now She Is a Well, Strong Woman and Praises Cardui For Her Recovery.

Royse City, Tex.—Mrs. Mary Killman, of this place, says: "After the birth of my little girl...my side commenced to hurt me. I had to go back to bed. We called the doctor. He treated me...but I got no better. I got worse and worse until the misery became unbearable...I was in bed for three months and suffered such agony that I was just drawn up in a knot...

I told my husband if he would get me a bottle of Cardui I would try it... I commenced taking it, however, that evening I called my family about me... for I knew I could not last many days unless I had a change for the better. That was six years ago and I am still here and am a well, strong woman, and I owe my life to Cardui. I had only taken half the bottle when I began to feel better. The misery in my side got less... I continued right on taking the Cardui until I had taken three bottles and I did not need any more for I was well and never felt better in my life... I have never had any trouble from that day to this."

Do you suffer from headache, backache, pains in sides, or other discomforts, each month? Or do you feel weak, nervous and fagged-out? If so, give Cardui, the woman's tonic, a trial. J 71

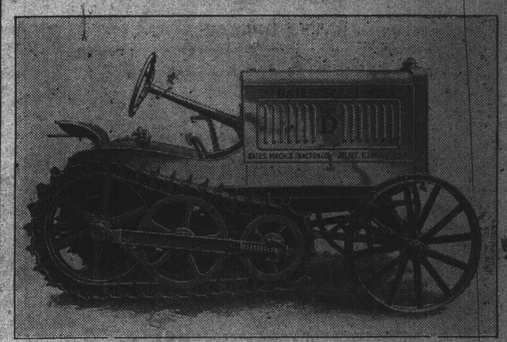
Every Inch of the Bates Steel Mule is Thoroughbred



The United States government by means of the Department of Agriculture, has been looking into the tractor question, and its bulletins clearly proves that the satisfied tractor owner—men who say that the tractor has paid—are men who own the BETTER CLASS of tractors. The successful man has learned years ago, that he can't get something for nothing. No one can. The reason the BATES STEEL MULE costs more is that it is worth more. Skilled factory procedure, quantity production and the most modern Machinery enables us to save money at every turn, yet the BATES STEEL MULE cost slightly more in the beginning to build but considerably less in the long run to own. It's just another case where a seemingly higher priced article is far cheapest to own when you come to actually USE it.

The Bates thoroughbred quality comes not from mere claims, but from what's put into it. Every part that goes to make up the BATES STEEL Mule is put there by long field experience. There isn't a part that isn't time-tried and tested. There isn't a part that experience has'nt dictated the shape and size of; and in it all there is'nt one superfluous part, nor one part that isn't capable of standing up under twice the strain it gets in actual use. These are things experience and practice have distracted. The BATES comes to you as a fulfillment of your desire for a tractor that will endure. Price is what we pay for a thing. Value is what we get out of it. Consider your tractor from what you will get out of it, consider how many working days you have when the ground is wet, consider the operations where you can not afford to pack your seed bed, and consider how constantly and economically they must be performed even in rush times, you will then see why the BATES STEEL MULE is the biggest value offerd in any tractor on the American market today.
